You Make It All Happen

We want to express our sincere gratitude for your donations during this season of giving and throughout the year. Thanks to your contributions our kids are thriving in school. Your generosity gives our young people the resources, support and encouragement they need when life - as it always will - presents them with challenges.

The last cohort of students entered the next phase of their education this year, joining a university or vocational school. They are learning how to manage the vast mass transit system to get to school and adapting to a new schedule of classes, homework and how to master the art of time management.

We had another group graduate from college and enter the work force for the first time. We are helping them create a budget, search for an apartment and make “life” decisions as they begin to create an adult life. An exciting time for all of us.

The work continues as we look to a new year of expanding our support system framework and adapting to a growing group of young adults who are committed to their goals and dreams.

A New Year of Possibility

Raj Kumar 2010

When Raj Kumar walks into a room people take notice, with a smile that can eclipse the sun, a personality that radiates and an eagerness to be a part of whatever is happening. His story is our story. A story of milestones, overcoming obstacles and creating a path out of tragedy into the promise of possibility.

There is nothing more rewarding than seeing your child learn and grow. Every day is a new adventure and watching them accomplish what they set out to do is truly remarkable.

This dream of ours, to create a home where HIV-positive orphans can thrive, is in a near constant state of evolving. As our kids grow up, their needs change, our focus shifts and we continue to build a system that provides the space where each and every one of them has the opportunity to dream and work to achieve what they want to.

This process is no small undertaking. In the end, we are here because of you. We will continue to build and grow into the new year with the same vision, hope and thankfulness that has brought us to now.

We wish you a holiday filled with love, joy and hope.

Consider a Monthly Sponsorship

Sustainable giving in the form of a monthly sponsorship provides stability. For just $49 a month, you can sponsor one of our kids and help us meet the needs required to maintain a quality education. This monthly support helps pay for a monthly metro pass, school supplies, tuition and more. Santosh is enrolled at Vaibhav Junior College studying Civics and Economics.
